Be a Light for All to See
Matthew 5:16

Dear Parents,

Archbishop Lori has set aside Friday, January 15th, as an Archdiocesan Day of Prayer for our country and its leaders to build a nation of peace and justice. As a school community, we pray the Peace Prayer of St. Francis every afternoon at school, and as Christians, we can channel our prayers towards positive change. Please find the prayer included at the end of this update.

With so much happening in the world today, I invite you to encounter God's voice and live life through the lens of scripture daily with The Bible in a Year podcast hosted by Father Mike Schmitz. (Attached to this Weekly Update is 'The Official 365 Day Reading Plan' that this podcast will follow.) You can find The Bible in a Year podcast on streaming apps such as Stitcher, Apple Podcasts, Spotify, Google Podcasts or wherever you listen to digital audio files. The beauty of a podcast is that you can listen to it on your own time, whether it is first thing in the morning, on your drive to work, during lunch time, or right before bed. I have been blessed these past two weeks by beginning my day listening to scripture. With so much uncertainty in the world today, join me on this journey and experience the transformative power of God's Word in your daily life.

God Bless,
Mrs. Cox

Important News & Notes:

Interim Notices: Today, interim notices for in-person learners were sent home with students and mailed home for remote students. All signed interims are due back no later than January 25th. Remote learners should simply scan the signed interim to the homeroom teacher.

Happy Helpers for the Homeless: Thank you to our Pre-K4 and Kindergarten families for your generous 'bag a breakfast' donations to Happy Helpers for the Homeless. Your generosity is much appreciated. Many thanks to Mrs. Susan Pippin who volunteered to collect our 'Bag a Breakfast' donations this morning; then, she was able to deliver the donations to the Happy Helpers headquarters in Halethorpe later in the day. We are happy to have had 107 breakfasts to donate this month. Again, thanks so much to everyone who was involved. We really appreciate your participation in this worthy cause!

Individual Picture Days: As many of you may be aware, on this month's calendar we have included two days for individual pictures of students to be taken on January 26 & 27, 2021. Our school photographers, Galeone Photography, will be providing an electronic order form in the coming days. When we receive the online form, we will send the information to all families in an e-blast. This information should be available early next week. We have arranged for the photographers to stay in the afternoon on Tuesday, January 26th, to accommodate any remote learners who want to have their pictures taken. Remote learners will be able to come into school during the hours of 12-2 p.m. through the middle doorway, go down to the MPR (multi-purpose room), have their photo taken, and exit the building through the same door. We will send out further details on the scheduling as soon as we have finalized plans.

Parent Directory: Over the next several days, your family should be receiving a copy of the 2020-2021 Parent Directory. We apologize for any omissions and/or outdated information. Hopefully, the information included will be of some use to you for the remainder of the school year. Thank you for your understanding.

School Store purchases: Since the school store is currently unavailable in the morning, if your child should need some type of school supply item, you may send in an order for the item(s) by using the Bookstore Price List attached to this update. Please list your child's name, homeroom, and the item needed on the front of an envelope and enclose payment in the envelope. Please include the exact amount in cash or by check as, unfortunately, no change can be given. Upon arriving at school, the student should give the envelope to his/her homeroom teacher, and she will send it down to the bookstore. Depending on when the order is received, the requested item will usually be sent to the child's classroom by the end of the day. If virtual learners need to replenish school supplies, such as copy books, or other required items, please email Mrs. Sullivan (k.sullivan@mssladeschool.com) to make arrangements to pick up the items at the front desk.

Grade Level Reminders:

Grades 2 & 3: The winter Scantron Performance Series will be administered beginning on Tuesday, January 19, 2021. Please see the schedule below for your child (ren)'s days and times. It is important that students receive a good night's rest and have a healthy breakfast the morning of testing. Testing will begin promptly at 8:35 a.m., so it is imperative that all students arrive/log-in before that time in order to get settled for testing. If students are late, they will not be admitted to their classroom until there is a break. Any missed test will need to be made up, so please ensure that your child is present and on time. Mrs. Cox sent home student log-in information for remote students today.

| Grade(s) | Date             | Time & Test              |
|----------|------------------|--------------------------|
| 2 & 3    | January 19, 2021 | 8:35-9:35: Reading       |
| 2 & 3    | January 20, 2021 | 8:35-9:35: Language Arts |
| 2 & 3    | January 21, 2021 | 8:35-9:35: Math          |

Grade Level Reminders (continued):

Grade 8 Midterm Exams: 8th grade students will be taking midterms on January 19-21. The schedule is as follows: Tues. 1/19 - History & Science; Weds. 1/20 - Spanish & ELA; Thurs. 1/21 - Math & Religion. Exams will be held from 8:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m. each day. Remote learners will need to take exams on-site all three days and arrive by 8:15 a.m. in order to be temperature checked and have sufficient time to settle in before exams begin. Students will need to be in uniform, bring a snack and water for the break in between exams, and bring pens/pencils.

Counselor's Corner:

Dear Families,

Peace Prayer of Saint Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
 where there is hatred, let me sow love;
 where there is injury, pardon;
 where there is doubt, faith;
 where there is despair, hope;
 where there is darkness, light;
 where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
 to be understood as to understand,
 to be loved as to love.
 For it is in giving that we receive,
 it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
 and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
 Amen.

Talking to Children About Violence: Tips for Parents and Teachers

High profile acts of violence, particularly in schools, can confuse and frighten children who may feel in danger or worry that their friends or loved-ones are at risk. They will look to adults for information and guidance on how to react. Parents and school personnel can help children feel safe by establishing a sense of normalcy and security and talking with them about their fears.

- 1. Reassure children that they are safe. Emphasize that schools are very safe. Validate their feelings. Explain that all feelings are okay when a tragedy occurs. Let children talk about their feelings, help put them into perspective, and assist them in expressing these feelings appropriately.
- 2. Make time to talk. Let their questions be your guide as to how much information to provide. Be patient; children and youth do not always talk about their feelings readily. Watch for clues that they may want to talk, such as hovering around while you do the dishes or yard work. Some children prefer writing, playing music, or doing an art project as an outlet. Young children may need concrete activities (such as drawing, looking at picture books, or imaginative play) to help them identify and express their feelings.
- 3. Keep your explanations developmentally appropriate.
  - Early elementary school children need brief, simple information that should be balanced with reassurances that their school and homes are safe and that adults are there to protect them. Give simple examples of school safety like reminding children about exterior doors being locked, child monitoring efforts on the playground, and emergency drills practiced during the school day.
  - Upper elementary and early middle school children will be more vocal in asking questions about whether they truly are safe and what is being done at their school. They may need assistance separating reality from fantasy. Discuss efforts of school and community leaders to provide safe schools.
  - Upper middle school and high school students will have strong and varying opinions about the causes of violence in schools and society. They will share concrete suggestions about how to make school safer and how to prevent tragedies in society. Emphasize the role that students have in maintaining safe schools by following school safety guidelines (e.g. not providing building access to strangers, reporting strangers on campus, reporting threats to the school safety made by students or community members, etc.), communicating any personal safety concerns to school administrators, and accessing support for emotional needs.
- 4. Review safety procedures. This should include procedures and safeguards at school and at home. Help children identify at least one adult at school and in the community to whom they go if they feel threatened or at risk.
- 5. Observe children's emotional state. Some children may not express their concerns verbally. Changes in behavior, appetite, and sleep patterns can also indicate a child's level of anxiety or discomfort. In most children, these symptoms will ease with reassurance and time. However, some children may be at risk for more intense reactions. Children who have had a past traumatic experience or personal loss, suffer from depression or other mental illness, or with special needs may be at greater risk for severe reactions than others. Seek the help of mental health professional if you are at all concerned.

6. Limit television viewing of these events. Limit television viewing and be aware if the television is on in common areas. Developmentally inappropriate information can cause anxiety or confusion, particularly in young children. Adults also need to be mindful of the content of conversations that they have with each other in front of children, even teenagers, and limit their exposure to vengeful, hateful, and angry comments that might be misunderstood.
7. Maintain a normal routine. Keeping to a regular schedule can be reassuring and promote physical health. Ensure that children get plenty of sleep, regular meals, and exercise. Encourage them to keep up with their schoolwork and extracurricular activities but don't push them if they seem overwhelmed.

Suggested Points to Emphasize When Talking to Children

- Schools are safe places. School staff works with parents and public safety providers (local police and fire departments, emergency responders, hospitals, etc.) to keep you safe. • The school building is safe because ... (cite specific school procedures). • We all play a role in the school safety. Be observant and let an adult know if you see or hear something that makes you feel uncomfortable, nervous or frightened.
- There is a difference between reporting, tattling or gossiping. You can provide important information that may prevent harm either directly or anonymously by telling a trusted adult what you know or hear.
- Although there is no absolute guarantee that something bad will never happen, it is important to understand the difference between the possibility of something happening and probability that it will affect you (our school community).
- Senseless violence is hard for everyone to understand. Doing things that you enjoy, sticking to your normal routine, and being with friends and family help make us feel better and keep us from worrying about the event.
- Sometimes people do bad things that hurt others. They may be unable to handle their anger, under the influence of drugs or alcohol, or suffering from mental illness. Adults (parents, teachers, police officers, doctors, faith leaders) work very hard to get those people help and keep them from hurting others. It is important for all of us to know how to get help if we feel really upset or angry and to stay away from drugs and alcohol.
- Stay away from guns and other weapons. Tell an adult if you know someone has a gun. Access to guns is one of the leading risk factors for deadly violence.
- Violence is never a solution to personal problems. Students can be part of the positive solution by participating in anti-violence programs at school, learning conflict mediation skills, and seeking help from an adult if they or a peer is struggling with anger, depression, or other emotions they cannot control.

The Official 365 Day Reading Plan for The Bible in a Year (with Fr. Mike Schmitz)

Welcome to the Bible in a Year reading plan that follows along with Ascension's new podcast: The Bible in a Year (with Fr. Mike Schmitz)!

In The Bible in a Year podcast, Fr. Mike Schmitz walks you through the entire Catholic Bible in 365 episodes, providing commentary, reflection, and prayer along the way. Find out more about The Bible in a Year (with Fr. Mike Schmitz) and how to listen at ascensionpress.com/bibleinayear.

About the Reading Plan:

Ascension's Bible in a Year Podcast follows a reading plan inspired by The Great Adventure Bible Timeline, a ground-breaking approach to understanding salvation history developed by renowned Catholic Bible teacher Jeff Cavins.

The Great Adventure Bible Timeline Philosophy:

- Identifies the 14 narrative books that tell the story of Scripture from beginning to end. The remaining “supplemental books” of the Bible are then contextualized within the storyline of the 14 narrative books.
- Divides the Bible into 12 time periods, identified by different colors, which serve as “chapters” in Salvation History.

How to Use the Reading Plan:

This reading plan covers the entire Catholic Bible in 365 days. Each day, Father Mike Schmitz will read 2-3 Scripture passages that coincide with the 12 periods of The Great Adventure Bible Timeline, denoted by the colors on the left side of the reading plan. Readings in bold refer to the 14 narrative books of the Bible.

The Psalms and Proverbs are spread out throughout the year to provide additional opportunity for prayer, reflection, and practical wisdom. The Psalms in italics have a particular connection to that day's other readings.

Thank you for joining us on this journey! We can't wait to get started!
