Dear Families,

Monsignor Slade Catholic School will celebrate Catholic Schools Week from January 29th through February 3rd. During this week, we join Catholic schools nationwide to celebrate the contributions we make each and every day. The theme, "Catholic Schools: Communities of Faith, Knowledge, and Service," highlights the fact that Catholic schools bring families together not only through academic excellence, but also in our commitment to serve and worship within our communities.

Because service is so important to us, there will be several opportunities for service during Catholic Schools Week. We will be participating in a school-wide service project to benefit Operation Mato Grosso, which provides aid to poor families in Peru. Fr. Lou Martin and his friend, Matteo Santi Amantini, spoke to the students about this important missionary work, as they have each spent time in Peru learning about and helping the people in need. Each grade level will be asked to donate specific school supplies that would most be helpful to the children. The intermediate students will also be collecting personal care items and household supplies for the Little Sisters of the Poor at St. Martin's Home in Catonsville. Your participation is voluntary, and whatever you can do to help will be greatly appreciated.

We will kick off Catholic Schools Week with our open house for prospective families on Sunday, January 29th, from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. We encourage you to share information regarding open house with those you know who are considering a Catholic school education for their children. We appreciate your positive comments about our school and thank you for helping to spread the good news about Monsignor Slade.

We look forward to seeing you on Thursday, February 2nd, for Parent Appreciation Day. It is going to be a wonderful week to celebrate who we are as a Catholic school community!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Alexa Cox
Principal
