During March, families will have an opportunity to contribute to the Monsignor Slade Annual Fund in honor of their enrolled students. Every donation, no matter the size, will help us to reach 100%! An orange flyer will be sent home via KidMail with two portions; the clip-off should be returned with a gift of your choosing, then if a donation is made your student(s) can write their first and last name on the basketball provided. The basketball, clip off and donation should be returned to the Advancement Office. You can make a difference! Help us to be #allin #100Slade! The top three classes with the greatest percent of participation will reap great rewards!

Home and School Happenings:

Candy Sale—As part of our candy sale this year, there are ten “golden tickets” that were randomly placed in the candy boxes before distribution. We are happy to report that we have our fourth and fifth golden ticket winners. Danica Dunevant, Grade 7, and Isabella Caballero, Grade 1, were the lucky winners of one-pound chocolate bars this week. There are still five golden tickets remaining. Keep selling those boxes for your chance to win a one pound chocolate bar. We can't wait to see who will find the next one!

Answer to 80s trivia question from page 1:

Domino's Pizza. The Noid character was created for Domino's Pizza in 1986 as a physical manifestation of all the challenges inherent in getting pizza delivered in 30 minutes or less.

Notes from the Health Room

When it snows, ain't it thrilling,
Though your nose gets a chilling
We'll frolic and play, the
Eskimo way,
Walking in a winter wonderland.—Richard B. Smith

There is no better way to ruin a snow day than to end it in the ER. As we head into the season for snow, it is important to remember a few safety tips for when kids go out sledding. Sledding is a fun childhood (and adulthood) activity, but if precautions are not taken it can be very dangerous.

According to the The Mayo Clinic's Website:

"Each year in the United States, 25,000 children under age 15 are seen in the emergency department for sledding injuries, many of them severe."

The children's hospital of Cincinnati offers the following safety tips:

- Sit face-forward (never head-first or standing)
- Go down the hill one at a time (one person per sled)
- Keep arms and legs within the sled
- If you fall off the sled, move out of the way
- Walk up the side of the hill leaving a sled path for others
- Roll off a sled that won't stop
- Never ride a sled being pulled by a moving vehicle
- Never ride into a snow bank – it may have a hidden object (rock or tree stump) within it
- Wear a helmet
- Wear sensible clothing for the winter (hat, mittens, waterproof clothes and footwear)
- Clothes should be dry (if wet, change them)
- A responsible adult should be present
- Children under 12 years of age should be actively watched and children under 5 years of age should have an adult sled with them

Happy wintertime!!

Sincerely,

Katherine Lynn, RN, BSN and Carrie Vibbert, RN, BSN
