A Prayer for Lenten Simplicity

Free me, Lord Jesus, from anything that obstructs my way to you. Clear away the clutter of petty grudges. Remove smudges of resentment and bitterness. Cleanse me of thoughts filled with anger envy, or self-pity.

Create space in my life for more kindness and less spitefulness, greater generosity and stronger compassion.

Enlarge my heart with a spirit of gratitude this Lent, so that I recognize the simple gifts that lay in abundance all around me.

In your sacred name, I pray. Amen.

OPERATION MATO GROSSO

- ANNUAL FOOD DRIVE -

Since 2017, every year from January to mid-April, we run our Annual Food Drive. The objective is to fill as many shipping containers as possible and ship them to our missions in Peru. We collect six staple food items (pasta, sugar, rice, flour, canned food, and cooking oil). We started with one small container (20 feet long) the first time, and every year we got better. In 2022 we shipped 4 containers (40 feet long).

We concentrate our efforts on a certain period of time; from the day of collection to the time when they are used for cooking in one of our mission sites in the Andes, the food may take 3 months to arrive. We collect food door-to-door and in front of local grocery stores. There are also schools and churches that support our effort. Before shipping, food is stored in a warehouse or in containers, where we can organize it, putting it in boxes and pallets.

This year will be our 7th Annual Food Drive. As mentioned before, since 2017, we have always doubled the amount of food collected, and once again, we're not looking to match it; we aim to double the amount!

WHERE THE FOOD GOES?

Food is used in our educational & trade schools, where we provide free meals to the students, in soup kitchens where we feed elderly people or people who are not able to provide for themselves, to patients in our hospitals, clinics, orphanages, and more.

As of 2022, Operation Mato Grosso has a total of 120 communities in South America: 75 in Peru, 19 in Ecuador, 14 in Brazil, and 12 in Bolivia. Our missionaries – young people, families, and priests who volunteer their work completely free – perform numerous activities in different sectors: education, labor, health, agriculture, technology, social and religious.

OPERATION MATO GROSSO in brief

Operation Mato Grosso started off as an adventurous trip with the idea of helping others. In 1966, Fr. Ugo asked a group of young Italians to travel to Brazil for the summer to help his missionary friend, Fr. Pietro, build a school and health center. By July of the next year, 21 young people left for the Brazilian state of Mato Grosso. After four months of hard work, they were unable to complete their project - so some decided to stay. Those who returned to Italy started to raise money to support the mission by finding any work they could. Today, there are over 120 groups and 1,400 volunteers. After its positive impact in Brazil, OMG expanded its mission to Bolivia, Ecuador, and Peru.

...in the US

In 2008, a young American from Boston was traveling in the Peruvian Andes when he happened to come across some Operation Mato Grosso volunteers working in a village. He immediately fell in love with their mission to support local people and decided to become a volunteer himself. Upon his return to the U.S. and after spending two years as a volunteer in the mission of Yungay, Fr Ugo suggested he start gathering young people in the U.S. to create OMG groups like the ones in Italy. He decided to take Fr. Ugo's idea seriously.

Since then, youth from the U.S. are gradually becoming more involved. Operation Mato Grosso can now count in their ranks five groups of teenagers and young adults in Maryland. Like our fellow Italian friends, we raise money to support the missions by meeting 2-3 times per week during our free time to do volunteer work such as landscaping, painting, moving, cleaning - or any other work we can find. The pay we earn from the work goes directly to the charity. Volunteers' range age goes from 14 to 26 years old.

After work, the group usually gathers to share a meal (lunch/dinner) and fellowship. What bounds the volunteers is the desire to give themselves to others, working together as a group, giving up their time and energy for the less fortunate...with the common need to keep seeking something meaningful for our lives.
