Important News and Notes:

- Cafeteria Info – The last day that lunches will be served and/or sold in the cafeteria is May 31st. After May 31st, ALL students must bring a bagged lunch with drink to school for the remainder of the school year. If you are currently carrying a negative balance on your Tommy's account, please make sure to send in your check or make a payment online as soon as possible.

- Attention Bakers: The student bake sale, listed in the parent handbook as being held on May 12th, has been cancelled. With all of the end-of-year activities, we generally don't host a student bake sale in May, and this was inadvertently scheduled on the calendar. Thank you for your understanding.

We hope that you be able to stop by the library to enjoy the talents of our wonderful students.
- Save the date: May 12th – The Faculty & Parents vs. 8th Grade Students Basketball Game will be played at Mt. St. Joseph High School, beginning at 7 p.m. Any 8th grade parent who would like to play on the team should send an email to Mrs. Cox at a.cox@msladeschool.com.

A special thank you to Anne Arundel County State's Attorney, Wes Adams, for his presentation at the meeting on Cyber-Safety: Keeping Our Children Safe in a High-Tech World. His message was very informative and eye-opening, as any of our children could be a victim. We hope to have him back again for a presentation to our middle school students.
